

CITY OF COATESVILLE
CITY OF COATESVILLE DECLARES STATE OF EMERGENCY

ISSUED ON FEBRUARY 22, 2026, EFFECTIVE FEBRUARY 22, 2026

DUE TO IMPENDING WINTER STORM

WHEREAS, the City of Coatesville ("City") is a Home Rule Municipality operating pursuant to a Home Rule Charter and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

WHEREAS, beginning on or after 12:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 22, 2026, and continuing through Monday, February 23, 2026, the City is expected to experience a major and unforeseen winter storm, producing severe snowfall, ice accumulation, hazardous travel conditions, and impediments to emergency operations;

WHEREAS, this winter storm has caused or threatens to cause dangerous road conditions, municipal and residential property damage, obstruction of emergency services, and significant risk to the safety and welfare of residents, businesses and the City's emergency services responders in the City;

WHEREAS, the severity of this winter storm endangers the health, safety, and welfare of a substantial number of persons residing in the City, and may require aid and assistance from Chester County and/or Pennsylvania government agencies;

WHEREAS, immediate and proactive emergency management measures are required to mitigate the severity of the storm and to protect life, safety, welfare, and property within the City;

WHEREAS, the purpose of this proclamation and ordinance is to activate the response and recovery components of all applicable state, county, and local emergency management plans, and to authorize the furnishing of aid and assistance under those plans; and,

WHEREAS, at the request and direction of the City Emergency Management Coordinator the City Manager has requested that a Declaration of State of Emergency be issued in accordance with Section 7501 of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Services Code, 35 Pa.
